The Botswana Road Traffic Act mandates passing this theoretical component before practical driving assessments are scheduled.

Content and Structure of the Test

Botswana's driving theory test covers a wide array of subjects, typically organized into several key categories: Road Traffic Signs and Regulations Safe Driving Practices Vehicle Maintenance and Inspection Alcohol and Drug Use Impact on Driving Emergency Procedures and First Aid Rights and Responsibilities of Drivers The format usually consists of multiple-choice questions, with candidates required to answer a specified number correctly to pass. The number of questions and passing score may vary, but generally, candidates are tested on around 40-50 questions with a required accuracy of about 80%.

Legal Framework Governing the Test

Botswana's Transport and Communications Ministry, through the Department of Road Transport and Safety (DRTS), oversees the administration of the driving theory test.
